Product Description

C1220 JIS Copper Sheet 1.4mm Thickness Customize Size Purple Color Construction Use

Product Description

Of all the non-ferrous metals, copper is arguably the most influential. There's gold and silver that everyone knows about, but when it comes to usability, they don't come close to copper. The fact that this metal has been around for longer than all the timelines of all other metals combined is a proof of that. Man has used copper for over ten thousand years and its reign is far from over. It's not difficult to understand why copper is still extensively used despite the emergence of numerous other non-ferrous metals. It has to do with its amazing properties
