Product Description

No.1 SS304 Stainless Steel Sheet Plate GB Hot Rolled 15mm Thickness 1000*2000 For Industry

Product Description

Hot rolled stainless steel plates are relatively low in strength. But the plasticity is good, generally for the thick plate. Hot rolled stainless steel plate surface smooth, high plasticity, toughness and mechanical strength, acid, alkaline gas, solution and other media corrosion resistance. It is an alloy steel that does not rust easily, but not absolutely.

Use of steel plate

1, structural steel production of general structural steel and welding structural steel, mainly used for steel structural parts, Bridges, ships, vehicles production.

2, weatherproof steel added special elements (P, Cu, C, etc.), has good corrosion resistance and atmospheric corrosion resistance, used in the production of containers, special vehicles, but also used in building structures

3, automobile structure steel with good DRAWING performance and welding performance of high strength steel plate, used for automobile FRAME, WHEEL and other production.

4, hot rolled special steel general mechanical structure with carbon steel, alloy steel, tool steel, after heat treatment engineering for the production of various mechanical parts.

5, Cold rolled original plate is used to produce various cold rolled products, including CR, GI, color coated plate, etc.
