- Highlight: Seamless Mild Steel Pipe Tubing, DN400 Mild Steel Pipe, 6mm Seamless Steel Pipe

Product Description

Seamless Steel Pipe Mild Steel tubing 20# Bridge Use DN400 6mm thickness Customized Length Dark Surface

Product Description

The 20 # seamless steel pipe produced in accordance with GB / T 8163-2008 only uses fluid. Because the requirements of GB 3087-2008 standard are higher than that of GB / T 8163-2008 standard in terms of allowable wall thickness difference, bending test, low power inspection and surface quality, in addition, GB 3087-2008 standard also specifies the high temperature strength requirements, so under the condition that the maximum test pressure is not greater than lompa, the 20 # seamless steel pipe produced according to GB 3087-2008 standard can replace the 20 # seamless steel pipe produced according to GB / T 8163-2008 standard. Steel pipe. When the wall thickness of steel pipe is $\geq 15\text{mm}$, pay attention to calculate the wall thickness of steel pipe when replacing.
